Countertops are taking a special place in interior designing and have become an important application surface while renovating or designing a space. They are many looks and themes that one can go for as far as countertops are concerned, there key factors to be kept in mind are - beauty, durability, and utility. We present to you 8 best countertop solutions that are perfect for modern kitchens!

1. QUARTZ

Quartz is the most popular material for countertops. Engineered stone or quartz has become the first choice for all good reasons. They are modern, stylish, unique, durable, and easy to install. Unlike granite, quartz is manufactured using recycled stone granules, resins with added colors and surprisingly it looks and feels like natural stone.
