THE 'ETHYL' WHALE

Artist Joel Dean Stockdill and Yustina Salnikova have built a life-size blue whale out of plastic trash for Monterey Bay Aquarium

Oceans all over the world are choking with the high quantity of plastic waste that we release into them. Blue whales, the largest animals known to ever exist, weigh as much as 300,000 pounds – equal to the weight of plastic waste that ends up in the ocean every nine minutes.
