VASTU

FESTIVE VASTU

This Diwali, make your home more auspicious, healthy and prosperous with some easy to implement vastu ideas by Mumbai based vastu expert, Neha Bajorria.

Neha Bajorria is a Vastu expert from Mumbai, who had a flourishing corporate career in the bustling real estate sector of Mumbai. She feels that the biggest doorway to her understanding the relevance and importance of Vastu in modern life came through her experiences of working as Vice President for seven years at India Bulls Real Estate and two years at Tata Housing Development Company.

She started her corporate life back in 2007 and was enjoying it immensely. Yet there was a growing dissatisfaction, a desire to do something with a purpose, to help people, these reflections eventually led her to Vastu Shastra and the practice of it. Since then she has studied this field extensively and believes that Vastu can affect a human being and can impact the success or failure in his / her life in a major way.
