RE-BUILDING JAPAN

Kenzo Tange was one of Japan's most honored architects, teacher, writer and urban planner. We share a glimpse into his life and work...

"Designs of purely arbitrary nature cannot be expected to last long."

Kenzō Tange was a well-known Japanese architect. Born on 4 September 1913 in Sakai, Japan, he was one of the most significant architects of the 20th century, combining traditional Japanese styles with modernism, and designed major buildings on five continents. His career spanned the entire second half of the twentieth century, producing numerous distinctive buildings in Tokyo, other Japanese cities.

PROJECT

ARCED LUXURY

The Half Arc House in Mumbai, an exotic project by the Covet house is mesmerizing.

The Half Arc House, located in one of the most opulent skyscrapers in the heart of South Bombay, is rewarded with a stunning uninterrupted view of the Arabian sea on one end and the city on the other. The tower, complete with a lavish swimming pool and gym, captures the essence of luxury living. The Half Arc House is mindfully designed to magnify the luxury living experience.

Covet House's pieces were essential to provide the luxury details needed for this project, with pieces from some of the most renowned luxury brands like Boca do Lobo, Delightfull, Brabbu, Koket, Maison Valentina, Circu, Luxxu, Essential Home, Rug' Society, Pullcast, Foogo, and Caffè Latte providing not only the pieces, but also inspiration to this design.

LINKING WORLDS

Armani/Casa 2021 Collection by Giorgio Armani is a collection for every changing home in the world.

“I took my inspiration for this Armani/Casa collection from Nature. We live on this planet, and we need to be in touch with the earth. Natural elements give us calm and serenity and provide the background against which we can express ourselves.” Giorgio Armani

There are many questions Giorgio Armani has attempted to answer during these recent months in which the home environment has become the main horizon of everyday life.
